

Cancer Support Community Greater Philadelphia Virtual Living with Loss Support Groups for Kids and Teens

Our kids group, middle school group and high school group are for those who have lost someone to cancer. Our FREE groups meet twice a month. A separate group for parents/guardians is offered that focuses on issues of raising kids while grieving.

“We bereaved are not alone. We belong to the largest company in all the world — the company of those who have known suffering.”
—Helen Keller

“We never truly get over a loss, but we can move forward and evolve from it.”
—Elizabeth Berrien

Are you a kid or a teen who has lost someone to cancer? Would you like to talk to others going through the same thing? In our groups, we talk, we play games and we do artwork.

To attend any of these programs, please call 215-441-3290 or email Christina@cancersupportphiladelphia.org

Cancer Support Community Greater Philadelphia Virtual Kid Support & Straight Talk about Cancer

These FREE groups are kids and teens who have a parent, grandparent, other family member or friend with cancer (either in treatment or post-treatment), or for kids and teens who have cancer themselves. Our groups offer them an opportunity to learn about cancer, communication skills, relaxation techniques and talk about feelings when cancer is in their lives.

A Parent Group is also available.

Kid Support™

An 8 week peer support group for kids 5-12. We break up into smaller age appropriate groups and play games and complete activities while talking about cancer issues and concerns.

Straight Talk About Cancer

Middle School & High School

We plan to meet twice a month to talk about cancer, coping strategies, and other cancer related issues.

To attend any of these programs, please call 215-441-3290 or email
